

The Empowerment Program

*For You and for the Journey called YOUR LIFE

Here  Now  This Moment
It's something for the rest of your life...

Faith

This e-game is ill-logical and un-reason-able to play and it is a possible new first step to eliminating problems not own its own level

Have faith in no-thing. Have faith in the process. Have faith in the journey. Have faith in faith. You are not letting go to something greater than you. You are letting go to a greater you.

Favor moving and living from the higher point view, 1% more than that. It's a game...
Play for no reason other than for the love of the game called your life.

Einstein was a player...

No problem can be solved from the same level of consciousness that created it.

~ Einstein

Deal with all problems. Favor dealing with a problem not on its own level. Since you are greater than your disturbing situation; since you are not your circumstances, you are more powerful then the appearance of a problem

Being fully present to what is so, even if it appears as disturbing, is power. It automatically dis-empowers the disturbance. Resistance begins to dis-appear. It is a game worth playing.

This e-game is ill-logical and un-reason-able to play and it is a possible new first step to eliminating problems not own its own level. Simply be with what is neither resisting nor resenting... favoring accepting and allowing.

The basic principle of spiritual life is that our problems become the very place to discover wisdom and love.

~ Jack Kornfield, A Path With Heart

On one level the disturbance is there to contribute to you. This conversation continues to be ill-logic-al and un-reason-able to follow.

...the circumstances of our birth and life are precisely karmically perfect. All that we face and endure--the obstacles, the challenges--serves the evolution of consciousnesses which we simultaneously under the negative consequences of the past and derive advancement of spiritually positive choices.

~Dr David Hawkins, M.D., PHD, Truth vs. Falsehood

Notice your resistance to what you have been reading. It is human to automatically offer resistance to resistance. It appears the right thing to do i.e. to resist resistance... The disturbance appears to be wrong and you appear to be right. You own your own right to be right, not as a point of view or a position. It is your experience. It does not appear as an assessment or interpretation, for you have evidence for why it is wrong and you are right. Simply you are right. IT is wrong.

...well how it is going. To be blunt, you want a different outcome...

To achieve a new or different outcome, you must move into a state of non-consensus reality where the rules of the game may not be so rigidly defined. Try playing by a different set of rules, or go to a different game entirely. The new game enables you to be free enough to produce congruent objective changes in every aspect of our life. Taking full responsibility for what you what to create allows you to make up the rules as you go along.

~ Dr. Richard Bartlett, Matrix Energetics: The Art and Science of Transformation
